"Gentlemen, in the little moment that remains to us between the crisis and the catastrophe, we may as well drink a glass of Champagne."

Paul Claudel, French playwright (1868 - 1955).

Afternoon Tea

Served in Palm Court and The Drawing Room from 1.30pm – 5.30pm

Tradition has it that Afternoon Tea was 'invented' by Anna Maria, the seventh Duchess of Bedford, who in 1841 started drinking tea and having a bite to eat in the mid-afternoon, to tide her over during the long gap between lunch and dinner. This swiftly developed into a social occasion, which is as popular today as it was back then.

“Champagne...the wine of kings, the king of wines.”

Guy du Maupaussant

Bollinger Bar at Palm Court

“I drink it when I’m happy and when I’m sad.
Sometimes I drink it when I’m alone. When I have company I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I’m not hungry and drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it – unless I’m thirsty.”

Bollinger

Bollinger Special Cuvée	125ml Glass	14.00
	75cl Bottle	80.00
	150cl Bottle	160.00

The Special Cuvée is the purest expression of Bollinger's style. A rich, biscuity nose with a hint of summer fruits. On the palate, full flavours of nuts and toast and some citrus characters abound, balanced by excellent acidity.

Bollinger Special Cuvée Rosé	125ml Glass	17.00
	75cl Bottle	100.00

Perhaps vaguely inspired by Aunt Lily, Bollinger Rosé is a true member of the Bollinger family. It is based on the established blend of Special Cuvée combined with some fine still red wine from Pinot Noir vineyards principally in Verzenay.

Ayala Rosé	125ml Glass	13.00
	75cl Bottle	67.00

A delicate cherry colour with a hint of copper. On the palate, this wine is powerful, vinous and is well balanced. The finish, rich and fresh, is elegant and long lasting.

"I'm only a beer teetotaler, not a champagne teetotaler."

George Bernard Shaw, Irish playwright. (1856 - 1950).

Formosa Toppest Oolong (Taiwan)

5.95

The large black twisted leaves of this fine semi-fermented Oolong provide a character which is light, as if gently scented by fruit blossom.

Silver Needle or Yin Zhen (Fujian province, China)

5.95

Only the youngest and finest leaves are plucked and gently dried to produce this light and delicate tea. The character is light and nutty and best enjoyed without milk.

Gunpowder Green (China)

Light and delicate but also penetrating, its yellow-green liquor has the advantage of being packed with antioxidants, which is widely regarded as being beneficial to good health.

Japanese Cherry Green (Japan)

The delicate flavour of green tea balances well with the subtle flavour of Japanese cherry.

Jasmine Green (China)

A light and fragrant tea scented with jasmine which produces a delicate but soothing cup.

Camomile

Best quality camomile flowers produce a pleasant aromatic tea that may be enhanced with a little sugar or honey.

Peppermint

Fresh high quality peppermint that calms and soothes.

Lemon

Lemon fruit pieces and oil are blended with a light flavoured black tea to produce a fresh zesty cup.

Blackcurrant and Blackberry

China black tea flavoured with blackcurrant oil and blackberry leaves.

Passion Fruit and Orange

Fruity and refreshing, the passion fruit and orange pieces are blended with fine Keemun China leaf tea.

Iced Tea

5.95

Cool and refreshing, made to order with Famous Edinburgh tea.

"There comes a time in every woman's life when the only thing that helps is a glass of champagne."

Bette Davis, American actress (1908 - 1989) in the film Old Acquaintance

Teas and Infusions

4.25

Royal Scottish Balmoral Blend (India and Sri Lanka)

This is a blend of Assam and Ceylon Malty and rich yet aromatic with a wonderfully rounded taste.

Famous Edinburgh (India, Sri Lanka and Kenya)

A more Ceylon based tea, light, bright and refreshing with a full curranty character. A balanced refreshing cup.

Earl Grey (China Tea blend)

A tea delicately scented with the oil of Bergamot, a citrus fruit akin to the lime. A very refreshing brew with a hint of sharpness drunk with either milk or lemon.

Assam (North-East India)

This powerful, colourful brew is malty in character with suggestions of burnt strawberry jam. A tea drinker's tea.

Darjeeling (North India)

Often described as the Champagne of teas, this tea is grown at high altitude and offers a distinctive character with astringency and hints of almonds. Penetrating, yet delicate and refreshing.

Ceylon (Sri Lanka)

The orthodox leaf gives a bright curranty cup with a crisp astringency that is a perfect foil for a slice of lemon.

Ceylon Decaffeinated

This classic Ceylon leaf tea has been gently decaffeinated. It retains the sweet rounded character of Ceylon teas.

Lapsang Souchong (Fukien province, China)

This large leaf black tea has a powerful tarry aroma and a very distinctive smoky taste. There is no grey area with this tea, you either love it or loathe it.

China Keemun (Anhui province, China)

This wonderful large black leaf tea has a full, slightly sweet character and overall is mellow and refreshing.

Rooibos (Western Cape, South Africa)

Sometimes known as Red Tea, Rooibos is caffeine free and full of antioxidants, the flavour is slightly sweet and nutty.

“Champagne Wishes and Caviar Dreams.”

Bollinger La Grande Année 2000

140.00

Only produced in exceptional years. This is Bollinger's Prestige Cuvée from Grande & Première Cru Vineyards. This blend expresses the House's true excellence and is the expression of a given year, the exceptional terroir and winemaking methods particular to Bollinger. La Grande Année ages a minimum of six years.

Bollinger La Grande Année Rosé 1999/2000

180.00

La Grande Année Rosé 1999 is only available in very small quantities; in fact only 2,700 bottles were produced for the UK in 2006. La Grande Année Rosé is only produced in years of exceptional harvests and is a derivation of Bollinger's vintage La Grande Année with the addition of La Côte aux Enfants. 1999 was one of the best harvests of recent years, making the 1999 Rosé one of Bollinger's most spectacular wines.

Bollinger RD 1997

225.00

'Recently disgorged' was proposed for the first time by Madame Jacques Bollinger in 1961 on the basis of the 1952 vintage. This concept is unique, absolutely without equivalent in Champagne. In terms of blending RD is a Grande Année, but a Grande Année that has aged in the Bollinger cellars for 8 to 25 years. Full Bodied and showing great depth of biscuity, brioche character and developed fruit.

Bollinger Vieilles Vignes – Unique to the Bollinger Bar

600.00

Absolutely unique in Champagne, 'Vieilles Vignes Françaises' is the living relic of what Champagne was a century ago before phylloxera destroyed the vineyards of France. Mysteriously, Aÿ and Bouzy, a few plots of ungrafted vines resisted phylloxera. The Bollinger family decided to preserve these vineyards. It is composed of 100% Pinot Noir and only produced in Vintage years.

Paul Claudel, French playwright (1868 - 1955).

The Martini

During the twentieth century it became an American icon and was revered by such men as Franklin D. Roosevelt, Winston Churchill and Ernest Hemingway. In our humble opinions, the simplicity is the genius.

As a house style we will serve you an extra dry martini. You will notice only a hint of vermouth, therefore your choice of spirit will be vital to your enjoyment of the cocktail.

To Create Your Perfect Martini: 10.50

Select your desired Gin or Vodka as listed on the next page

How the martini will be served

Straight up or on the rocks?

Style of Preparation

Would you prefer your martini shaken or stirred?

To garnish

Choose between a lemon twist, olive, or maybe even grapefruit twist

Variations

Burnt Martini – Vermouth is replaced with a smoky single malt

Dirty Martini – Your martini with the addition of olive brine

Palm Court – your Martini strained through Lapsang Souchong tea leaves

Gibson – Served with a pickled onion

Gimlet – Martini with Lime Cordial

"Champagne should not be drunk, it should be tasted. One should not swallow it greedily. One should taste it slowly in narrow glasses, in well-spaced, thoughtful sips."

At Perrier-Jouet, they believe there is nothing quite as romantic as a fine Champagne shared with the one you love.

The house of Perrier-Jouet was founded by a couple who fell in love with the vineyards of Champagne and each other. Together they created the world's most passionate Champagne.

Champagne

Pommery

Pommery Cuvée Louise 75cl Bottle 246.00

Treated as a tribute to Louise Pommery, Cuvée Louise is an absolutely pure wine which quintessentially conveys the wine-making expertise of the Pommery champagne house.

On the palate, the wine is deliciously full-bodied with almost a bit of fat, thus offering a perfect balance, exemplary honesty and coveted elegance.

"Champagne! In victory one deserves it; in defeat one needs it."

Napoleon Bonaparte, 18th century French conqueror (1769 - 1873)

Pol Roger

Pol Roger white foil

75cl Bottle 90.00

Pol Roger White Foil Non Vintage Champagne is a harmonious and very consistent blend of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Meunier. Feminine but fruity in its youth while the Pinot Noir makes for a firmer, more structured, fuller wine with age.

Pol Roger 'Sir Winston Churchill' 1998

75cl Bottle 300.00

Reserved for Great Britain, the Sir Winston Churchill cuvée has been described as "the greatest prestige cuvee of modern times" A full-bodied blend of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay drawn exclusively from Grand Cru sites under vine in Churchill's lifetime, this cuvee is a tribute to Pol Roger's most illustrious devotee, produced only in the very finest vintage years and released only when fully mature, in the style Sir Winston Churchill preferred.

'La Côte aux Enfants' constitutes a return to the origins of Champagne when it was renowned for its red wines. This is only produced in exceptional years from a small plot, ideally located in the heart of the terroir of Aÿ and planted with Pinot Noir. It shows what could have been red wine from Champagne a few centuries ago at the time of their splendour.

"Too much of anything is bad, but too much Champagne is just right."

Mark Twain, American humorist and novelist (1835 - 1910)

"My only regret in life is that I did not drink more Champagne."

John Maynard Keynes, American writer (1883 - 1946).
