The Bollinger Bar at Palm Court

Scotland's only Bollinger Bar - the ultimate, sophisticated Champagne Bar.

"I drink it when I'm happy and when I'm sad. Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone. When I have company I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I'm not hungry and drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it - unless I'm thirsty."

Madame Jacques Bollinger

Bollinger by the Glass (125ml)

Bollinger Special Cuvée £12.00

Bollinger Special Cuvée £65.00

The Special Cuvée is the purest expression of Bollinger's style. A rich, biscuity nose with a hint of summer fruits. On the palate, full flavours of nuts and toast and some citrus characters abound, balanced by excellent acidity.

Vintage Bollinger

Bollinger Grand Année 1999 £130.00

Only produced in exceptional years.

This is Bollinger's Prestige Cuvée from Grande & Première Cru Vineyards. This blend expresses the House's true excellence and is the expression of a given year, the exceptional terroir and winemaking methods particular to Bollinger. Le Grande Année ages a minimum of six years.

Bollinger Grand Année Rosé 1999 £150.00

La Grande Année Rosé 1999 is only available in very small quantities; in fact only 2,700 bottles were produced for the UK in 2006. La Grande Année Rosé is only produced in years of exceptional harvests and is a derivation of Bollinger's vintage La Grande Année with the addition of La Côte aux Enfants. 1999 was one of the best harvests of recent years, making the 1999 Rosé one of Bollinger's most spectacular wines.

Bollinger RD 1996 £170.00

'Recently disgorged' was proposed for the first time by Madame Jacques Bollinger in 1961 on the basis of the 1952 vintage. This concept is unique, absolutely without equivalent in Champagne. In terms of blending RD is a Grande Année, but a Grande Année that has aged in the Bollinger cellars for a longer period: a minimum of 8 years and up to 20 or 25 years. Full Bodied and showing great depth of biscuity, brioche character and developed fruit.

Bollinger Vieilles Vignes - coming soon to Palm Court

Absolutely unique in Champagne, 'Vieilles Vignes Françaises' is the living relic of what Champagne was a century ago before phylloxera destroyed the vineyards of France. Mysteriously, Aÿ and Bouzy, a few plots of ungrafted vines resisted phylloxera. The Bollinger family decided to preserve these vineyards. The Vieilles Vignes Françaises are cultivated manually according to ancient traditions. Composed of 100% Pinot Noir and only produced in Vintage years, this is always a complete wine.

Vintage Champagne

Louis Roederer Cristal 1999 £195.00
Created in 1876 for Tsar Alexander II. Cristal is made according to the strictest criteria. Only Pinot Noir and Chardonnay grapes from the House's 10 most celebrated crus are used in the production of this legendary cuvée.

Dom Pérignon 1999 £130.00
This wine is full of life, with a fresh nose, blending hints of angelica, dried flowers, pineapple, coconut, cinnamon, cocoa and tobacco. With a fullness in the mouth, its earthy, smoky, pearly complexity rises to the surface, underscored by the vibrant warmth of peppery spice.

Dom Pérignon Rosé 1996 £415.00
The 1996 Rosé is coppery pink with light orange highlights. The aroma of malt rapidly leads into well-ripened fruit, nectarine and wild strawberries, complemented by smoky, peaty accents. The tastes progress with strength which are tense, radiant and sharp. The finish is firm, underscored with a slightly vanilla-spicy note.

Dom Perignon Cenotheque

Dom Perignon is unique, in that a proportion of every vintage is retained and aged within the cellars. The cellar area dedicated to the storage of these older vintage wines is called the Cenotheque – "wine library". Dom Perignon occasionally releases small quantities of these wines when they reach a peak in their quality. Kept undisturbed in the Hautvillier's cellars, these wines offer a rare opportunity to experience Champagne matured in perfect conditions.

Dom Pérignon Cenotheque 1993 £315.00
Floral notes reminiscent of hawthorn, lime and even vine blossom have gently begun to give way to subtle aromas of hazelnut and brioche, characteristics which indicate good ageing potential. On the palate, toasted flavours combine with aromas of butter and brioche resulting in great complexity found only in truly great vintages.

Dom Pérignon Cenotheque 1992 £300.00
A light touch of aniseed and fresh almonds on the nose is quickly followed by notes of mango and dried figs, with toasty aromas completing the bouquet. The palate has firm structure with a backbone, silky texture and gradually evolves into persistent fresh notes of candied grapefruit and pepper.

Dom Pérignon Cenotheque 1983 £400.00
The nose of the 1983 is classic, mature and distinct. Initial notes of toast and hazelnut evolve into brioche, honey and spices. The palate is remarkably clear cut and forthright with a powerful, aromatic finish.

Dom Pérignon Cenotheque 1976 £500.00
The weather in 1976 was extraordinarily hot and dry and harvesting started 16 days earlier than the traditional harvest date. Sweet honeysuckle, ripe mirabelle plums and raisins are amongst the complex aromas on the nose. A lush opulence on the palate is combined with a smooth balance blending fullness and depth.

Dom Pérignon Cenotheque 1966 £915.00
The nose initially reveals roasted, peaty notes, leading to aromas of dried apricots, and finally a hint of fresh almonds and orange blossom. The wine is dense, pure and polished – sensations follow on naturally from one to another. Although the wine introduces a notion of classic balance, the deep green aromas of privet gradually give way to a long and surprisingly sharp fruity finish.

Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru 'Les Referts' 2001 (France) £100.00

The 'Les Referts' vineyard grows on the Southerly, clay-rich soil which produces a bigger, more Mersault-style wine with honeyed weight and depth. It shows a mature, sweet buttery nose, layered with nougat and honey fruit aromas, echoed on a palate of fresh white fruits.

Bollinger 'La Côte aux Enfants' 1999 Coteaux Champenois, Vin d'Aÿ (France) £110.00

'La Côte aux Enfants' constitutes a return to the origins of Champagne when it was renowned for its red wines. This is only produced in exceptional years from a small plot, ideally located in the heart of the terroir of Aÿ and planted with Pinot Noir. It shows what could have been red wine from Champagne a few centuries ago at the time of their splendour.

Royal Scottish Balmoral Blend £3.95

This is a blend of two 'Regal' large leaf teas from India (Assam) and Sri Lanka (Ceylon). The malty, rich Assam character perfectly complements the curranty, aromatic Ceylon tea and produces a wonderfully rounded, refreshing cup to soothe and refresh the palate. This tea is blended in Edinburgh, Scotland's historic capital city and seat of her Kings and Queens.

Famous Edinburgh £3.95

A Ceylon based tea, light, bright and refreshing with a full curranty character. The Kenyan teas in the blend give a brightness to produce a balanced refreshing cup. This tea was first blended in the 1930s, and is the perfect accompaniment for scones and pancakes.

Earl Grey £3.95

This tea takes its name from the second Earl Grey, it is believed that the blend was created in his honour. It is a blend of fine black China teas delicately scented with the oil of Bergamot, a citrus fruit akin to the lime. A very refreshing brew with a hint of sharpness that can be drunk with or without milk.

Assam £3.95

This rich tea is grown in North-East India in the upper Brahmaputra valley on the Borengajuli Estate. It is a second flush (picking) G.F.B.O.P. grade, these initials stand for Golden Flowery Broken Orange Pekoe. The powerful, colourful brew is malty in character with suggestions of burnt strawberry jam. A tea drinker's tea, the dry leaf shows a mix of black leaves against bright golden "tip", a hallmark of quality.

Darjeeling £3.95

Darjeeling tea is grown in North India in the foothills of the Himalayas, it is often described as the Champagne of teas. This tea is from the Margaret's Hope Estate and is a F.T.G.F.O.P.1 grade, or Fine Tippy Golden Flowery Orange Pekoe. The tea is grown at high altitude and offers a distinctive character with astringency and hints of almonds. Penetrating, yet delicate and refreshing.

Ceylon £3.95

The classic "Ceylon B.O.P.", or Broken Orange Pekoe, is grown at altitude on the island of Sri Lanka. The orthodox leaf gives a bright curranty cup with a crisp astringency that is a perfect foil for a slice of lemon.

Ceylon Decaffeinated £3.95

This classic Ceylon leaf tea has been gently decaffeinated by the CO2 decaffeination process. It retains the sweet rounded character of Ceylon teas.

Lapsang Souchong £3.95

This magnificent large leaf black tea is grown in the Fukien province of China and has a powerful tarry aroma and a very distinctive smoky taste. There is no grey area with this tea, you either love it or loathe it.

China Keemun £3.95

This tea comes from the Anhui province of China and has a wonderful large black leaf. It is low grown and has a full, slightly sweet character and overall is mellow and refreshing.

Rooibos £3.95

Rooibos is sometimes known as Red Tea and is grown in the Cederberg region of the Western Cape in South Africa. Caffeine free and full of antioxidants, the flavour is slightly sweet and nutty.

Formosa Toppest Oolong £5.95
